Photosensitive Seizure Warning

Important Health Warning About Playing Video Games

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these "photosensitive epileptic seizures" while playing or watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms, including light-headedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or hitting oneself on nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms - children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures.

The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by taking the following precautions:

- Do not sit too close to the screen.
- Preferably play the game on a small screen.
- Avoid playing if you are tired or have not had much sleep.
- Make sure that the room in which you are playing is well lit.
- Rest for at least 10 to 15 minutes per hour while playing a video game.

About World of Tanks

World of Tanks is a team-based massively multiplayer online game dedicated to armored warfare of the mid-20th century. The game gives you a unique opportunity to feel like a real tank commander taking part in a furious armored offensive!

The game features various types of battles, which allows you either to fight against random opponents of your skill level, or form teams and prove your worth in combat against other teams, or train together with your friends, sharpening various combat skills. All battles are staged on diverse detailed battlefields which offer not only an impressive spectacle, but also the tactical challenge of a variety of battle conditions.

You start your tank career in World of Tanks with a selection of five basic vehicles of each nation — Germany, U.S.A., U.S.S.R., France, Great Britain, and China — at your disposal. Select a tank, choose a desired battle type and roll out! Your main goal is to receive as much experience and credits in battles as possible.

Use credits to repair your vehicles and resupply ammunition, and to enhance your vehicle's performance on the battlefield by mounting various additional equipment and consumables or training the crew members of your tanks.

Use experience to advance in the game by researching and upgrading your tanks and modules and unlocking more sophisticated vehicles. Thanks to an advanced system of vehicle upgrade and development, you have the possibility to try out virtually all the vehicles and weapons featured in the game! The enormous tank fleet at your disposal features American, German, Soviet, French, British, and Chinese light, medium, and heavy tanks, as well as Self-Propelled Guns (SPG) and Tank Destroyers. All are historically authentic and include both legendary tanks and experimental prototypes.

There is nothing that can stop you on your way to becoming a true tank ace!

Good luck and enjoy!

Garage

After logging in, you will see the Garage screen. To see interface element description, point the cursor to a framed area on the screen below.

Selecting Your Battle Tank

To get ready for battle, you first need to select a battle vehicle. All vehicles available to you are displayed in the Vehicles panel.

Scroll the Vehicles panel to view all available vehicles. Note that vehicles you select may have different status. You may also filter the Vehicles panel content by nation, vehicle type, or status if the panel becomes too large.

■ To select a vehicle, left-click the required vehicle in the Vehicles panel. The selected vehicle appears on the main screen, with its characteristics and crew information displayed next.

■ To rotate the selected vehicle, left-click on the vehicle image and move the mouse while holding the left button down. Use mouse scroll to zoom in/out.

■ To set a vehicle as primary, right-click a vehicle in the Vehicles panel and select Set as Primary. The selected tank will be moved to the front of your Vehicles panel.

! Note that your vehicle will not be allowed in battle in the following cases:

- The vehicle crew is incomplete. See Recruiting Crew Members.
- The vehicle has been damaged in a previous battle. To enter battle on this vehicle, repair it. See Repairs.

Basic statuses of a vehicle

Ready for battle. Your current vehicle must be ready for battle to participate in combats.

Tank in battle. This status appears when you leave an active battle or your vehicle is destroyed. To join a new battle on this vehicle, wait until the current battle is over.

Repairs required. The vehicle was damaged badly in a previous battle and requires repairs before joining new battles.

Your primary vehicle is marked with a yellow ribbon. A primary vehicle is moved to the front of your Vehicles panel.

Elite vehicles are marked with a special icon. Elite status is awarded to vehicles with all available modules and technical branches researched.

A vehicle awaiting its first battle today. Winning a battle on this vehicle will bring you double experience.

Your current vehicle crew is incomplete. To join a battle on this vehicle, recruit missing tankers.

Vehicle Types and Categories

In World of Tanks you can choose between different vehicle types and categories.

Vehicle Types

- Light tank. Fast and maneuverable. Ideal scout, but extremely vulnerable due to thin armor.
- Medium tank. Greatly balanced on maneuverability vs. gun-power. May perform differently on the battle field depending on your strategy.
- Heavy tank. Heavily armored with powerful gun, but rather slow with low maneuverability.
- SPG. Impressively powerful gun, ability to hit targets from nearly any position, but thin armor.
- Tank Destroyers. Immense firepower, thick front armor, ability to damage any type of armor even at long distances while remaining unspotted.

A vehicle of each type has a unique marker. This marker appears as type identifier on the minimap, on the Battle screen as well as in the Garage, Depot, and Store.

Marker display varies depending on marker mode selected. You can choose between default and alternative vehicle marker modes.

To customize settings for each of the marker modes, go to Menu > Settings > Marker. To switch between these two modes in battle, press Alt. See also Marker.

Vehicle Markers

Vehicle Categories

- Basic vehicle. A basic tank available to all players from the beginning of the game. Each nation is represented by one basic vehicle. Basic tanks are free and are automatically repaired after battle. Once you have researched all available modules for a basic vehicle, you can unlock and purchase more sophisticated vehicles of this nation.
- Standard vehicle. A standard configuration vehicle can be purchased for credits after researching required modules. Experience earned on standard vehicles is bound to these particular tanks and can be distributed only towards researching these vehicles.
- Premium vehicle. Available for gold. Premium vehicles do not require additional research, however, they cannot be upgraded. Experience earned on a Premium vehicle can be converted to Free Experience (see Free Experience) or distributed towards accelerating crew training (see Accelerating Crew Training).
- Elite vehicle. A vehicle with all available modules and technical branches already researched. An Elite vehicle receives all capabilities of a Premium vehicle.

Vehicle Characteristics

When choosing one vehicle over another, consider characteristics that best suit your strategy.

General vehicle characteristics are displayed next to your current vehicle in the Garage. For more details, right-click on a vehicle in the Vehicles panel and select “Vehicle details”.

To view brief summary on vehicle characteristics, hover the mouse cursor over a vehicle in the Vehicles panel.

Vehicle characteristics include:

Hit Points: Determine vehicle ability to absorb damage.

Weight/Load limit (t): Determines vehicle maneuverability. In this respect light tanks have an advantage over medium and heavy tanks.

Engine Power (h.p.): Determines vehicle acceleration capacity.

Speed Limit (km/h): Determines vehicle top speed.

Traverse Speed (deg/sec): Determines speed of hull rotation.

Hull Armor (front/sides/rear, mm): Determines resistance of vehicle parts to damage.

Turret Armor (front/sides/rear, mm): Determines damage resistance of the vehicle turret.

Standard Shell Damage: Measured in Hit Points. Determined by gun and shell types. Powerful guns deal more damage.

Standard Shell Penetration (mm): Determines the maximum penetration by a standard Armor-Piercing shell.

Rate of Fire (rounds/min): Determines the number of shells a specific gun can fire per minute. Guns with a better rate of fire are advantageous at close range, while guns with a slower rate of fire are best suited for long-range combat and sniping.

Turret Traverse Speed (deg/sec): Determines how fast the turret will rotate and detect the target.

View Range (m): Determines view range of the turret.

Signal Range (m): Determines signal range between vehicles.

! A number of vehicle characteristics differ from their historical prototypes. Some of the characteristics (e.g., rate of fire or turret traverse speed) were intentionally changed for all vehicles, in order to improve gameplay and balance.

Recruiting Crew Members

Each vehicle is operated by a crew, which may consist of a Commander, Gunner, Loader, Radio Operator, and Driver. Note that different vehicle types have different number of crew members. For more info on crew, see Managing Crew in the Advanced section.

The crew of your current vehicle is displayed in the Crew panel in the Garage. Use it to recruit or replace tankers.

See also:

- Recruiting a Tanker in the Barracks
- Training Crew

! You can start a battle only if the crew is complete.

! You can also recruit crew members in the Barracks. See Recruiting a Tanker in the Barracks.

To recruit a tanker from the Crew panel:

1. Click a vacant slot in the Crew panel.

2. Select Recruit.
3. Select a training level. For details, see Training Crew.
4. Click Recruit. The new tanker appears in the Crew panel. The cost of the selected training level is charged from your balance.

Modules

Modules are replaceable parts of a vehicle. Each module has specific characteristics (for example, speed, rate of fire, view range, etc.), which influence the vehicle overall technical performance on the battlefield. To enhance your vehicle's characteristics and unlock more advanced vehicles for research, upgrade the modules of your vehicle.

Generally, a vehicle consists of the following modules:

Gun: Have different penetration, damage, accuracy, and rate of fire characteristics.

Turret: Determines vehicle endurance and view range.

Suspension: Determines vehicle terrain crossing capacity, traverse speed, and load limit.

Engine: Determines vehicle dynamic performance.

Radio: Determines vehicle signal range.

See also:

- Researching Modules for the Current Vehicle
- Purchasing Modules

! You cannot enter battle with a vehicle that is missing one or more modules.

! The configuration of most SPGs and Tank Destroyers includes four modules: gun, engine, suspension, and radio. The turret cannot be replaced.

! Each vehicle has a specific weight. Total weight of all modules mounted on a vehicle must not exceed the load limit of the vehicle's suspension.

Mounting Modules

Please note that before mounting new modules on a vehicle, you first need to research and purchase them (see chapters Researching Vehicles and Modules and Purchasing Modules).

Once the module is purchased, it becomes available for mounting on the current vehicle from the Modules panel in the Garage.

To view the list of upgrades available for your vehicle modules, left-click the required module in the Modules panel.

To mount a module:

1. Click a module in the Modules panel to view the list of available upgrades.
2. To view more details, right-click the required module.
3. Click a module in the list of available upgrades. Make sure that the module you select is available for purchase.
4. Click Purchase to confirm. The selected module is purchased and mounted on the current vehicle. A notification about successful mounting is displayed in the system channel. The module cost is charged from your balance.

	This module requires research.
	This module is researched and available for purchase (the price is displayed).
	This module has been researched and purchased and is available for mounting.
	This module is mounted on the current vehicle.

To view current module complete characteristics, right-click the required module in the Modules panel, in the Store, or in the Depot to activate information dialog.

The Characteristics dialog displays the following module information:

- General characteristics. Basic characteristics specific to each module that influence module performance.
- Compatible shells/vehicles. Components and vehicles compatible with the current module. The number of compatible components may vary depending on a module type.

Current vehicle type/model and mounted modules are displayed in green.

- Number of modules. Number of modules of the current type purchased and available for mounting.
- Vehicle. The name of the vehicle on which this module is mounted (for mounted modules only).

Ammunition

The amount of ammunition that can be loaded on each vehicle depends on its gun caliber, current turret, and the total weight. The shells are placed in slots in the Shells panel in the Garage and in the Ammunition and Consumables panel on the Battle screen. See Resupplying Ammunition.

Make sure that your ammunition is fully loaded before you join a battle.

See also:

- Purchasing Shells
- Selling Shells

Shell Types

There are four types of shells for you to choose from. Each type of ammo serves a specific purpose and is designed for different combat situations. Shell types differ in amount, penetration and damage.

Armor-Piercing (AP)

High armor penetration, moderate damage

The AP shell remains the preferred round in tank warfare, as it has a greater "first-hit kill" probability than a high-explosive anti-tank (HEAT) round, especially against a target with composite armor. Due to its higher muzzle velocity (the speed at which the projectile leaves the muzzle of the gun), it is also more accurate than a HEAT round.

High-Explosive (HE)

Low armor penetration, serious damage

At close range, can heavily damage a tank even without penetrating the armor (can easily damage the tracks). Well armored tanks and SPGs are quite resistant to HE damages. Most of the damage to soft targets such as unprotected personnel is caused by shell fragments rather than by the blast. However, large-caliber shells can cause severe damage both to light and heavy vehicles.

Armor-Piercing Composite Rigid (APCR)

High penetration at close range, minor damage

APCR shells are light in weight and therefore fast. The kinetic energy of the shot is concentrated in the core and hence on a smaller impact area, which improves its chances of penetrating the target armor. However, because these shells are lighter but still the same overall size, they have poorer ballistic qualities, and lose velocity and accuracy at longer range.

High-Explosive Anti-Tank (HEAT)

High penetration, moderate damage

HEAT shells need short barrels. The effectiveness of the shell is independent of its velocity and, therefore, the firing range. It is as effective at 1000 meters as at 100 meters. Such shells cannot be employed together with the APCR shells in some vehicles.

Resupplying Ammunition

To resupply ammunition:

1. Go to Garage.
2. Click a shell icon in the Shells panel or click Service to open the Service window.

3. Use sliders to adjust the number of shells you want to resupply.
4. Check “Resupply automatically” to restore the ammunition settings to the previous state after each battle automatically.
5. Click Accept to resupply ammunition. The cost of the purchased ammo is charged from your balance.

The order of shell slots is not fixed and you are free to change the sequence of shells in the ammo. By changing the slot sequence you can adjust the controls for switching between available shell types in the battle. See Shells/Consumables.

To change the order of shells:

1. Left click a shell slot in the Service window.
2. Select a shell type to place in this slot. The shells change the order of allocation, as well as the controls for switching.

To view shell characteristics right-click a shell in the Shells panel in the Garage or in the Service window.

! You can also purchase shells from the Store. See Purchasing Shells.

In Depot	The number of shells of each type available in the Depot (purchased previously).
Purchase	The number and cost per shell of ammo available for credits.
4 x 10	The number and cost per shell of Premium ammo available for gold or credits. The total cost is displayed in the Price section.
24	The number of shells of each type loaded on your current vehicle.

Repairs

After a battle your vehicle is likely to be damaged or destroyed. Before joining a new battle on the same vehicle make sure it is repaired. You can join a new battle only in a fully repaired vehicle.

To make necessary repairs:

1. Click Service on the Garage screen. The Service window is displayed.

In Action. Random Battle

Once you have selected a vehicle and it is ready for battle (see Selecting Your Battle Tank), prove your skills with experienced soldiers in a random battle. World of Tanks provides you with a challenging possibility to polish your commander skills in a random battle of the following three types:

- Standard Battle
- Assault
- Encounter Battle

Each battle type has its own specifics to make your gaming experience more exiting. See Standard Battle, Assault, and Encounter Battle.

In this chapter:

- Standard Battle
- Assault
- Encounter Battle

! To disable certain battle types, go to Menu > Settings > Game. See Game for more details.

In a Random Battle, the map, battle type, and players are selected randomly.

To start a Random Battle, click Battle! or select “Random Battle” from the Battle! menu in the Garage. The Pre-battle Lobby is displayed, followed by the Battle screen of the randomly selected battle type.

The Random Battle screen provides the following information:

- The name of the battle type.
- The title and preview image of the map randomly selected for the current battle.
- Victory conditions.
- Lists of the two competing teams with players' names, as well as models and icons of the participating vehicles.
- The battle load bar. The Battle screen appears once the loading completes. The battle starts immediately after a 30-second countdown expires.
- Random tips on combat tactics.

Standard Battle

Standard Battle features two opposing teams, each defending its own base.

To win a Standard Battle, either destroy all enemies or capture the enemy base. Do both to ensure the victory.

The maximum battle time is 15 minutes.

A standard battle ends at a draw if none of the teams manages to capture the base or destroy all enemy vehicles, or both teams accomplish the battle mission at the same time.

Assault

Assault features two opposing teams and a single base belonging to the defensive team.

To achieve victory:

- For defensive team: keep the base or destroy all attacking vehicles.
- For attacking team: capture the base or destroy all defensive vehicles.

! If the attacking team fails to capture the base or destroy all defensive vehicles before the battle time elapses, the defensive team wins the combat.

Encounter Battle

The encounter battle type features two opposing teams and a single neutral base located in between initial positions of the teams. The neutral base does not belong to any of the teams.

The battle lasts until all enemy vehicles are destroyed or the neutral base is captured.

To capture the neutral base, score 100 capture points. See Base Capture for more details on the base capture rules.

! If vehicles of both teams occupy the neutral base, the capture progress ceases but does not return to zero. The capture resumes when either of the teams regains its sole control over the base.

Battle Screen

After the battle starts, the Battle screen is displayed. This is the screen where you'll spend most of your game time.

! The Battle screen may look slightly different depending on a random battle type.

The Standard battle screen looks as follows. To see an interface element description, point the cursor to a designated area on the screen below.

Battle Controls

To move your vehicle, aim, fire, and perform other actions on the battlefield, use the controls listed below. See Control Reference for a complete list of controls.

To exit a battle press Esc then click Back to Garage > Yes.

Shooting Modes

Use one of the three shooting modes featured in the game: arcade, sniper, or artillery. Choose the mode which best suits the combat situation or your strategy.

! When switching between arcade and sniper modes, the camera stays focused on the same target.

Arcade Mode

This is a standard mode available to all vehicles. Arcade mode is best suited for dynamic short- and middle-range battles.

Sniper Mode

Sniper mode is available to all vehicle types, except SPGs. Use sniper mode to hit long-range targets.

To switch to Sniper mode, do either of the following:

- Scroll the mouse wheel three clicks forward.
- Press LShift.

To exit Sniper mode, do either of the following:

- Scroll the mouse wheel three clicks backward.
- Press LShift.

Reticle Indicators

The reticle is displayed in the center of the Battle screen. Use it to aim the gun, see target details, etc.

To customize reticle settings, see Reticle.

Vehicle Icon. Icon of the target vehicle.

Range to Target. Distance to the target (another vehicle or a landscape element).

Vehicle Tier. Tier of the target.

Vehicle Model / Player Name. Your opponent's name and vehicle model.

Health Indicator. Target condition.

Target Health (%/HP left/total). Target health in HP or percentage.

Shells Remaining. The amount of ammo remaining in your vehicle.

Point of Aim. The center of the reticle is used to aim the gun. When the target vehicle is outlined, it can be hit with direct gun shot.

Player Health. Your vehicle condition and amount of health left.

Accuracy. Your gun firing accuracy. The accuracy decreases when the vehicle is moving, the turret is rotating, the gun is damaged, or the Gunner is injured.

Gun Position. The current gun position.

Base Capture

At the start of a battle your friendly team appears within or close to your base, with the flagpole in the center. Enemy base is located on the opposite side of the map. Neutral base is usually located between the opposing teams.

! Victory conditions and base location vary depending on the battle type. See also Standard Battle, Assault, and Encounter Battle.

Base capture points

As you occupy a base you gain capture points. Note that the more friendly vehicles occupy the enemy base, the faster the base is captured.

Also note the following when capturing a base:

- If an occupying vehicle leaves the enemy base, the base capture progress returns to zero.
- If an occupying vehicle is damaged during capture, the progress returns to zero, but the capture continues.
- If a vehicle is destroyed while capturing a base, the progress returns to zero, and capture discontinues.
- You can capture the enemy base even if enemy tanks appear within the base circle (if you manage to repel the attack and survive long enough).

! Click Menu > Settings > Graphics > Colorblind mode to switch to the colorblind mode. Under this mode the Battle screen does not rely on red and green color, and the flag-indicator of the enemy base is displayed in bluish color. See also Graphics.

Tactics Hints

Victory in a battle can only be achieved through the combined efforts of every member of the team, each playing their own role on the battlefield.

Protect your SPGs, preventing your opponents from penetrating your lines. Destroy opposing artillery, detect enemy vehicles, and capture bases. Attack cooperatively, devise strategies, and keep your base safe at all times!

See below for basic scenarios for various vehicle models.

Heavy Tanks

Move forward, shooting targets and eliminating medium and light enemy tanks. Protect friendly SPGs or remain in the background to cover your comrades in an emergency.

Medium Tanks

Attack the enemy heavy tanks and Tank Destroyers by aiming at their sides and rear, or eliminate light tanks. Punch deep into enemy lines and destroy opposing SPGs or protect friendly artillery.

Light Tanks

Light tanks are the eyes and ears of the team. Use them to detect and neutralize opposing artillery and tanks and deliver their coordinates to friendly SPGs. The main advantage of light tanks is their maneuverability. Exhaust your foes in close-range combats. If you are lucky, you can even capture the enemy base.

Tank Destroyers

Tank Destroyers are intended for ambush operations. Hide in the bushes, switch to sniper mode and wait for easy targets. But do not drop guard! Move to find a new position at the slightest scent of danger.

Tank Destroyers are also perfect for protecting other vehicles. Their guns are powerful and the front armor is very thick, which makes them hard to destroy.

SPGs (Artillery)

SPGs are slow and clumsy but have immense firepower. Use their unique artillery shooting mode to destroy targets in any square of the map.

SPGs send shells in parabolic arcs which allows you to fire from behind cover. Seek out a good position and hope that enemy vehicles do not detect you. Timely use of direct fire may provide artillery a good chance of survival even in close combats.

Terrain

Various types of terrain featured in the game influence your vehicle speed:

- Vehicles move at a full speed on asphalt and roads.
- Vehicles move at a medium speed on grass, level ground, and ploughed fields.
- Vehicles move at a low speed on swamps and marshes.

Ramming Trees

- The success of ramming a tree is determined by the weight of your vehicle.
- Vehicles do not sustain any damage from ramming trees (nor from colliding with destroyed vehicles).
- Vehicles cannot ram bushes.
- Fallen trees do not affect vehicle view range or movement.

Basic Tactics Hints:

- The higher your speed, the lower your accuracy.
- A vehicle's armor is thinner on sides and rear.
- The closer to the target, the easier to penetrate its armor.
- A stationary tank is more difficult to detect, but shooting reveals your position.
- Buildings and destroyed vehicles are a good shield against enemy fire, unlike trees and bushes.
- Use bushes and trees to make your vehicle harder to detect.
- Vehicle can be destroyed when falling from the height or immersing deep into the water.

Postmortem

If your vehicle is destroyed during a battle, there are two options for you to choose from: return to the Garage and start another battle (remember that you cannot use the same vehicle as long as it stays in battle or is damaged, see Selecting Your Battle Tank) or stay on the battlefield and watch your comrades in arms fight to the end in the Postmortem mode.

The Postmortem mode is activated immediately after your vehicle gets destroyed. To enable the post-effect in the Postmortem, go to Menu > Settings > Game (see also Game). With the post-effect enabled, the screen turns darker after the destruction of your vehicle.

Postmortem mode allows you to use the chat and the minimap, e.g., send attention messages to team by highlighting a square on the minimap.

- Right-click to cycle among allies remaining on the battlefield to watch the battle from their point of view.
- Left-click to return to the previous allied vehicle.
- Press and hold Ctrl and left-click the square on the map to send attention message to your teammates.
- Press and hold Ctrl and left-click a player name in the Team panel to watch the battle from this player's point of view.
- Press Esc and click Back to Garage > Yes to return to the Garage.

Battle Results

The Battle Results screen appears once the battle is over. This screen shows your personal and team achievements, the amount of credits and experience you received in the battle (see Experience and Credits), as well as the list of detected, damaged, and destroyed enemy vehicles and received awards.

The Awards tab displays information on the Marks of Excellence — distinctive marks of tank aces.

The marks are applied to the gun barrel and remain visible to other players in battle.

To receive Marks of Excellence, improve your battle performance:

- Damage caused to enemy vehicles
- Damage due to your assistance.

The number of marks on the gun barrel depends on how high your average damage ratio is compared to the ratio of other players on the current vehicle:

- ★ — higher than the ratio of 65% players
- ★★ — higher than the ratio of 85% players
- ★★★ — higher than the ratio of 95% players.

Marks of Excellence are awarded according to the following rules:

- Marks can be obtained on vehicles of tiers V – X only.
- Marks are awarded in Random Battles only. See In Action. Random Battle.
- The damage ratio is updated after each battle.
- Applied marks are permanent and cannot be removed or demoted.

! Marks of Excellence are not displayed in Historical Battles. See Historical Battle.

! To disable the display of your Marks of Excellence, go to the game settings. See Setting up the Game.

Battle Recording and Replay

The battle recording and replay feature enables you to review previous battle, share your experience, or simply watch and enjoy your triumphs. Recording feature allows you to:

- Replay a recorded battle many times.
- Replay the recording up to 16 times faster.
- Pause the replay.
- Switch between free and fixed camera modes.

To record a battle click Menu > Settings > Game > Enable battle recording.

All recorded battles appear in the Replays folder located in the World of Tanks game folder on your computer. The Replays folder is created automatically once the battle record finishes. The file in .wotreplay format appears in this folder. By default the file name contains the name of the map and vehicle you played on.

To replay the battle:

1. Close the game client once the battle is over.
2. Navigate to the Replays folder.
3. Open the .wotreplay file.

The replay starts automatically. No registration is required in the Replay mode. The battle record starts with the load screen and stops once the battle is over.

When replaying, you can switch between the following two camera modes:

- Fixed camera mode, showing where you aimed the camera during the battle.
- Free camera mode, which allows you to adjust the view angle.

! For information on Replay controls see Replay Mode.

Experience

Information on your experience is displayed on the Garage screen next to the Research button.

Nearly everything you do on the battlefield — destroying enemy vehicles, attacking targets by fire, obtaining achievements, etc. — brings you experience points (XP). You even earn experience for losing a combat, as long as you keep fighting to the bitter end!

Experience is used for upgrading modules and vehicles and advancing in the game (see Researching Vehicles and Modules).

In this chapter:

- Experience
- Free Experience

! Battle experience is bound to the vehicle on which it was earned and can be distributed towards upgrading that specific vehicle only.

! Players with Premium Account receive 50% more of experience for each battle, which allows them to develop faster. See Premium Account for details.

The amount of experience you receive after each battle depends on various parameters, including:

- Your team's overall performance during the battle
- Your vehicle survival
- Your combat activity: actively attacking targets and being attacked by enemies
- Number of targets detected (SPGs bring more than regular tanks)
- Number of targets destroyed (including the difference in the tier between your tank and the target)
- Amount of critical damage caused to enemy (including the tier difference)
- Amount of enemy base capture points received. For details, see Base Capture.

Free Experience

 Information on your total Free Experience earned on all Elite and Premium vehicles is displayed in the Garage screen next to Convert Experience button.

Experience received in battles on Premium and Elite vehicles can be converted to Free Experience, which is not bound to a particular vehicle, unlike common battle experience, and can be spent on unlocking any modules and vehicles. Free Experience also makes up to 5% of the general battle experience received on standard vehicles in each battle.

You can continue by accumulating Free Experience with each battle on a standard vehicle or obtain a Premium tank and proceed with upgrades much faster.

! When researching modules and vehicles, Free Experience is spent last.

! Also use Free Experience to accelerate crew training. This training mode is available to Premium and Elite vehicles only. All experience received in battles on such tanks can be distributed towards crew training. See Accelerating Crew Training.

To convert experience to Free Experience:

1. Click Convert Experience.
2. Select the vehicles you wish to convert experience from.
3. Enter the amount of experience you wish to convert.
4. Click Convert.
5. Click Transfer in the dialog box to confirm experience conversion. The specified amount of experience is converted to Free Experience. The specified amount of gold is charged from your balance.

In-Game Currency

World of Tanks features two in-game currencies: credits and gold. The amount of gold and credits on your balance is displayed in the upper right corner across all screens.

In this chapter:

- Credits
- Gold
- Converting Currency

Credits

Credits are the main in-game currency that can be earned in battles, received for selling modules and vehicles, or purchased for gold. Use credits to repair your vehicles, purchase modules and vehicles, and other game needs.

The amount of credits you receive after each battle depends on certain conditions, including:

- The battle outcome (victory brings more credits than defeat)
- The tier of your battle vehicle (higher-tier vehicles receive more credits)
- The amount of damage caused to enemy
- The number of targets detected (SPGs bring more than regular tanks).

A certain amount of credits will be charged from your account if you damage or destroy a friendly vehicle. The amount of credits charged appears in the System channel and in the Battle Results window.

Gold

Gold is an additional in-game currency used for purchasing Premium Accounts, premium shells, and other premium content. Gold is purchased for real money and can be converted to credits.

Click Get Gold to purchase gold on the World of Tanks website. Follow the instructions on the site to refill your balance.

Converting Currency

Don't worry if you are running out of credits. You can easily exchange gold for credits at any time:

1. Click Garage > Exchange Gold.
2. Select the amount of gold you wish to convert to credits.
3. Click Exchange > Exchange. A notification about successful conversion is displayed in the System channel. The specified amount of credits appears on your balance.

You cannot buy gold for credits.

You cannot use gold outside World of Tanks or convert it to any real or virtual currency.

Researching Vehicles and Modules

Research new vehicles and modules to advance in the game and broaden your vehicle fleet, and, therefore, obtain more capabilities on the battlefield and have more fun. Use experience earned in battles to unlock advanced modules and vehicles (see Experience).

There are two ways of researching vehicles:

- Research modules for the current vehicle. Unlock and purchase advanced modules to upgrade a specified vehicle.
- Research vehicles successively moving down the Tech Tree from one vehicle to another. The Tech Tree is a hierarchical representation of all possible sequences of vehicle upgrades.

! You cannot purchase new high-level vehicles without research or move to Tech Trees of other nations.

! Basic configuration modules are modules mounted on a vehicle during purchase. Basic modules do not require research.

Researching Modules for the Current Vehicle

To research modules for the current vehicle:

1. Click Garage > Research or right-click a vehicle in the Vehicles panel and select Research. The Research Modules window appears. The window provides information on all available upgrades for the current vehicle modules, as well as the vehicles following the current vehicle in the Tech Tree.

See also:

Equipment improves various vehicle characteristics. Equipment doesn't require research and cannot be bartered.

Each vehicle has a list of available equipment. The list of such equipment depends on the vehicle's nation, model, type, and tier.

Equipment influences the vehicles permanently. Some equipment items need certain conditions to take effect (e.g., a vehicle must be stationary for the Camouflage Net or the Binocular Telescope to activate, etc.).

! Vehicles of a higher tier have access to more advanced equipment.

Equipment can be either basic or complex. Basic equipment can be mounted and demounted from vehicles freely, while complex equipment is destroyed when replaced. See also Demounting Equipment.

Mounting Equipment

You can mount equipment only on fully repaired vehicles. Each vehicle has three slots for the equipment.

The equipment is purchased for gold or credits in the Store or from the Equipment panel in the Garage.

To purchase and mount equipment on the current vehicle:

1. Go to Garage.
2. Select a slot in the Equipment panel. The list of available equipment is displayed.
3. Select an equipment item from the list.
4. Click Purchase to confirm. The selected equipment is purchased and mounted on your current vehicle. The specified cost is charged from your balance.

Managing Crew

Each vehicle is operated by a crew which may include a Commander, Gunner, Loader, Radio Operator, and Driver. The crew size is determined by the vehicle type, thus different vehicles have different number of tankers.

The crew is necessary for the vehicle to function properly and contributes to its technical performance. To enhance the vehicle characteristics, increase the crew level of the major qualification or take up additional skills/perks (see Major Qualification, Competence, and Training and Skills and Perks).

Below is an example of how the Crew panel might look. Each crew member slot provides quick access to the tanker's personal data.

- 100% — Competence level
- Major qualification
- The tanker reached 100% competence level and can be trained for a skill/perk.
- Rank
- 2% — Skill or perk of the tanker. The skill/perk level is indicated to the right.

You can also select the “Accelerate crew training” option to distribute all experience earned on this vehicle towards crew training.

- If a crew member gets injured or knocked out, the qualification and competence level becomes effective only after you heal the tanker.
- If all crew members are injured, the vehicle is considered knocked out regardless of any other circumstances.
- To heal crew members, use the First Aid Kit consumable.

To replace a crew member:

1. Left-click a tanker you wish to replace in the Crew panel.

2. Select another tanker of the same nation and competence. The tanker is replaced. The previous tanker appears in the Barracks (see Recruiting a Tanker in the Barracks).

1. Go to Barracks.
2. Scroll down the list of tankers.
3. Click Enlarge Barracks > Enlarge to confirm purchase. 16 additional bunks appear in the Barracks. The related amount of gold is charged from your game account.

Major Qualification, Competence, and Training

Each crew member has a specific vehicle competence and major qualification.

Competence represents tanker's ability to operate a specific vehicle type. Competence is set during recruiting, but can be changed later for another vehicle. For details, see Retraining.

Major qualification represents tanker's role in the crew and is defined by the amount of experience received by the crew member in battles. The level of major qualification greatly influences vehicle effectiveness in battles. A tanker may perform several roles in a crew (for example, a Commander and a Gunner). In this case only the initial major qualification is indicated in the Crew panel in the Garage.

If a crew member combines several qualifications at a time, the efficiency of the rest of qualifications depends on the level of the tanker's initial major qualification.

Default level of the major qualification equals 50%, but can be increased in battles. See Training Crew and Accelerating Crew Training.

Major Qualifications:

Commander determines view range. Commander's skills influence the skills of the whole crew: the higher the training level of the Commander is, the more efficiently the whole crew operates.

Gunner determines the vehicle's gun accuracy and aiming speed. A skilled Gunner aims the gun more accurately.

Radio Operator determines the vehicle signal range. An expert Radio Operator is able to communicate over longer distances.

Driver determines the vehicle's speed. A skilled Driver makes more effective use of engine power.

Loader determines the vehicle's gun

Training Crew

To enhance a vehicle's battle performance, increase the level of major qualification of the vehicle crew. When recruiting tankers, you can directly train them to 50%, 75%, or 100% level of major qualification.

To train a tanker to a higher level:

1. Right-click a required tanker in the Crew panel to open the Personal File window.
2. Go to the Training tab.
3. Select a vehicle type and model, and the level to which you wish to train the tanker.
4. Click Train. The tanker's characteristics change according to the selected parameters. The cost of training is charged from your balance.

! Achieving 100% level of major qualification unlocks skills and perks. See Skills and Perks.

Accelerating Crew Training

This training mode is specific for Elite and Premium vehicles only (see Vehicle Types and Categories). In this mode all experience is spent on crew training. Disable accelerated crew training to resume accumulating experience.

Accelerate crew training for the current vehicle:

1. Select an Elite or Premium vehicle in the Vehicles panel in the Garage.
2. Check “Accelerate crew training” over the Crew panel.
3. Click ON to confirm. All experience received on this vehicle in new battles will be spent on crew training.

Retraining

While you cannot change a tanker’s major qualification, you can freely change the tanker’s competence by retraining a tanker for another vehicle.

To retrain a tanker:

1. Right-click on a crew member in the Crew panel and select Personal File, or right-click on a required tanker in the Barracks to open Personal File.
2. Go to the Training tab.
3. Select the vehicle type and model for which you wish to retrain the tanker
4. Select a desired training level.
5. Click Retrain. The tanker’s characteristics change according to the selected parameters.

! A tanker can be retrained only for previously researched and purchased vehicles.

! Retraining for a new vehicle decreases the level of major qualification. The tanker’s skills and perks cease to have an effect till you regain basic level 100%.

Skills and Perks

Along with major qualification, a crew member can also have various skills and perks which become available upon achieving basic level 100%.

Both skills and perks improve gradually with each battle. Skills become effective, as soon as training starts, while perks take effect only after reaching 100%.

A tanker may take up any number of skills/perks. Other skills/perks become available once a tanker is fully trained for a previously chosen skill/perk.

The list of available skills and perks depends on tanker's major qualification. However, there are four common skills available to all tankers regardless of their major qualification. If a tanker performs several duties at a time, this tanker may take up any skill or perk available to these major qualifications.

Skills available to all tankers:

Firefighting

Firefighting abilities are enhanced as this skill increases.

Repair

Accelerates repairs to damaged modules.

Camouflage

Your vehicle will become less visible as this skill increases.

Brothers in Arms

This skill improves the level of major qualification and of all skills and perks of the entire crew.

Selecting Skills or Perks

To select a skill/perk:

1. Right-click a tanker in the Crew panel and select Personal File, or right-click a tanker in the Barracks to open Personal File.
2. Go to the Skills tab.
3. Select one of the available skills/perks.
4. Click Select. Training for the selected skill/perk will begin. The skill/perk icon appears in the Skills and Perks field in the Personal File window.

Dropping Skills or Perks

You train a tanker one skill/perk at a time. To train a tanker for another skill/perk, drop the current one. Later you can restore this skill/perk to a selected level. A tanker may take up any number of skills/perks.

! Batch dropping is performed for a tanker with multiple skills/perks.

To drop a skill/perk:

1. Open tanker's Personal File.
2. Click Drop.
3. Select the desired restore level in the Drop Skills and Perks window.
4. Click Drop > Drop. The specified cost (if applicable) is charged from your balance.

To restore the skill/perk, follow the steps for selecting skills/perks. The skill/perk level is restored to the level you selected during the skill/perk dropping.

Viewing Service Record

For spectacular performance on the battlefield your tankers can be rewarded with various medals and achievements. Tankers can also hold ranks and be promoted.

Ranks

All tankers in the game hold ranks and can be promoted. The initial rank depends on the tanker's major qualification. See also Major Qualification, Competence, and Training.

A crew member is promoted for increasing the training level of the major or skills/perks. See also Major Qualification, Competence, and Training and Skills and Perks

Achievements

To view tanker's achievements:

1. Right-click a tanker in the Crew panel and select Personal File, or right-click a tanker in the Barracks to open Personal File.
